The 28th Research Seminar of the Managing Economic Transition network

17 September 2014

It is our pleasure to announce the 28th research seminar of the Managing Economic Transition network. The seminar will be hosted by the Department of Accounting, Economics and Finance, Bristol Business School, University of the West of England on Wednesday 17th September 2014.

We look forward to receiving papers which relate to any economic or international business issues concerning the emerging market countries of Central and Eastern Europe and Central/East Asia, including (but not limited to) the role of institutional change, labour and financial markets, entrepreneurship, innovation, migration and remittances, effects of the global economic crisis, environmental change, and the EU enlargement.

The papers or long abstracts (900 words) should be sent to Dr Artjoms Ivlevs at: a.ivlevs@uwe.ac.uk no later than on the 4th of July 2014 to be considered for inclusion in the seminar. The acceptance decision will be delivered within the two weeks after this deadline.

Our network seminars are free for all to attend, but we do not cover any transport or other costs that you may incur.

We also seek discussants for papers and panel chairs. Please let us know if you would be willing to do this.

Organising Committee: Saul Estrin (LSE), Jens Hölscher (Bournemouth), Artjoms Ivlevs (UWE), Tomasz Mickiewicz (Aston).
