Aims and Scope

Geographic Scope: The area that lies between the eastern Adriatic, the eastern Mediterranean, and the Black Sea

Thematic Scope:

- Multidisciplinary journal (Political Science, Sociology, International Relations, Contemporary History, Economics, Anthropology, Law, Gender Studies, and Cultural Studies)
- Exploration of critical societal issues and processes related to East and Southeast Europe after the systemic changes of 1989/90
- We welcome comparative perspectives towards adjacent regions with implications for other world areas

We welcome

- Regular research articles
- Proposals for a thematic section (4-6 research articles united by a common topic)
- Book reviews
- Other text genres in the 'Open section': Commentary, Interview, Background, Policy Analysis, Debate, Spotlight, Book Symposium

All research articles are subject to a double-blind peer-review process.

Book reviews and open section contributions are screened by the editors, but have no peer-review
